TOUCHING THE COMMUNITIES WE WORK IN

At Georgia-Pacific, we are in the business of creating essential things. Our building products make homes a reality and our packaging supports commerce. GP tissue and paper towels are simple everyday necessities for home, and away from home. Our paper contains our most eloquent thoughts and our tableware allows busy families faster clean-up for more enjoyable meal times. We make life's simple necessities®, so our neighbors can concentrate on life's ultimate essentials; loving our families and friends, enriching our communities, chasing our dreams.

President's Message

It is my pleasure to welcome you to Copiah-Lincoln Community College.

Co-Lin has a great tradition of academic and athletic success. The work and determination of our student athletes have reflected positively on our institution in the past and I am confident the tradition of outstanding achievement will continue with our athletes of today.

In recent years our athletic teams have won state and regional championships and participated in NJCAA National Tournaments. This year was no exception as Coach Gwyn Young and the Lady Wolves Basketball Team were the MACJC State Champions, NJCAA Region 23 Champions, and finished in sixth place at the NJCAA National Women's Basketball Tournament.

Since 2000, Co-Lin has produced 28 NJCAA All-Americans in baseball, softball, basketball, golf, and football. We are just as proud of the academic accomplishments of our students. The Men's Tennis Team was the No. 1 MACJC Men's Academic Team. They ranked No. 2 NJCAA. The Women's Tennis Team was the No. 4 NJCAA Academic Team of the Year and the Lady Wolves Softball Team was No. 6. Also ranked in the Top 20 were the Golf Team (No. 13) and the Women's Soccer Team (No. 17). In 2011, four student-athletes were received NJCAA Pinnacle Awards for Academic Achievement, two received Superior Academic Achievement, and two were recognized for Exemplary Academic Achievement. The MACJC recognized five student-athletes as Distinguished Academic All-State and 12 as Academic All-State.

Our coaches are truly dedicated. They work tirelessly throughout the year with resources that are very limited compared to other colleges. Nevertheless, they have developed programs that are competitive in every sport. Our coaches also are committed to helping our student athletes achieve their personal, academic and career goals.

Finally, we welcome all teams, fans, coaches, and administrators to our campus. Please enjoy your stay and let us know if we can assist you in any way.

Wolfpack cheerleaders qualify for Nationals

For the second consecutive year the Co-Lin cheerleaders placed at the Universal Cheerleading Association's (UCA) Cheer Camp at the University of Alabama this summer. They received superior ribbons each day and were second in cheer, chant, fight song, and second overall. The squad qualifies for National Competition that will be held in January in Orlando, Fla.

Co-Lin cheerleaders have attended the camp the last 10 years. They have won numerous awards and trophies year after year.

Cheering at Co-Lin is a year-round sport and requires hard work and dedication. Today's cheerleader possesses a unique combination of athleticism, entertainment and student leadership.

Tryouts are held each April. Current and former Co-Lin cheerleaders practice with the new cheerleaders starting in early March so they can be prepared for tryouts.

In May the new squad travels all over the surrounding counties teaching private camps to junior high cheerleaders. This continues until the middle of July. Each camp lasts three to five days. The cheerleaders also hold Lil Wolf Cheer Camps for elementary students during the year. Participants cheer during home football and basketball games.

The squad practices at least three to four times a week starting in May and continuing until school begins in August.

Former Co-Lin cheerleaders have gone on to cheer at NCAA Division I schools including the University of Mississippi, Mississippi State University, the University of Southern Mississippi, Southeastern Louisiana University, and Delta State University.

Twyana Britt Morse begins her 15th year as cheerleading sponsor.

Blue Wave has “Imagination”

“What’s the theme for this year’s show?”

“Where does the Blue Wave Show Band come up with those crazy ideas that entertain the patrons at Hook Stone Stadium?”

“How can they continually, year after year, surprise the audience?”

These questions and others are answered this year as we take a look behind the scenes at what makes the Blue Wave Show Band tick.

Somewhere on the back side of the Co-Lin campus, hidden far away from prying eyes, there exists a room called the Blue Wave Imagination Room where much of the magic takes place. This year you will get an unprecedented look behind the curtain and get a glimpse of the process that goes into producing the half-time shows for Mississippi’s most entertaining show band.

We open the 2011 show with a favorite from Willy Wonka, “Pure Imagination,” which leads into the Earth Wind and Fire powerhouse anthem, “Fantasy.” The Colettes and Color Guard are featured on one of the most exciting tunes we have played in a long time, “Walking on Sunshine.”

The TV show “Glee” has been a major factor in reviving songs from decades past as with the Men Without Hats song “Safety Dance” which features the wild men and women of the Blue Wave percussion section. Only one song could possibly end a show about imagination...the beautiful, up-lifting ballad made famous by the great Louis “Satchmo”

Armstrong in the movie Good Morning Viet Nam, “What a Wonderful World.”

The Drum Major for the Blue Wave Show Band is Zack Different of Mendenhall.

Percussion Captains are Jeffrey Brown, Mendenhall and Corey Sims from Loyd Star.

Head Colette is Leslie Guyton of Brandon, Co-Head Caitlin Freeman of Loyd Star, Brooke King of Wesson and Chelsea Boyd of Brookhaven, choreography assistants.

Color Guard Captains are Danyelle Mott, Katelyn White, and Karri Baylis, all of Monticello.

Follow the Blue Wave Show Band on Facebook. Join the Blue Wave Show Band as we cheer the Wolf-pack on to another great year.

Wolfpack rebuilding after successful 2010 campaign

Head Coach Glenn Davis leads the Wolfpack into the season facing the daunting task of rebuilding the roster. Co-Lin (9-2) put together a run to the State Championship game last year before falling 31-17 to Mississippi Gulf Coast. Getting back there will be difficult with the graduation of a talented sophomore class. He's been up to the task before, with two of his six seasons ending in national rankings. The Wolves finished last season ranked No. 13 and were No. 6 in 2006.

The Wolfpack come into the 2011 season ranked No. 19 in the NJCAA poll behind South Division powerhouses Mississippi Gulf Coast (No. 2) and Pearl River (No. 8) and North Division foes Northwest Mississippi (No. 9) and East Mississippi (No. 16).

Offensively, the Wolves lost several key skill position players, including quarterback Percy Turner who passed for 18 touchdowns and nearly 2,000 yards last year.

The leading candidates to fill Turner's shoes are a pair of incoming freshmen in Brookhaven Academy's Chandler Rogers (6'3, 200) and Bastrop (LA) standout Darren Anderson.

Rogers led the state with 3,002 passing yards and 31 touchdown passes, to go with a 60 percent completion rate. He added 824 yards rushing with 17 scores for the Cougars.

Anderson will also see action at the receiver position.

At running back, Joel Davis of Natchez (5'9, 185) and Danny Hobbs of Mendenhall (5'10, 190) are solid returners. Davis led the Wolves with 540 yards on the ground and six touchdowns.

Up front, the offensive line will have to "grow up" fast. Josh Young of Starkville (6'2, 300) is the only returning starter from last year's offensive line. He is solid, but surrounding talent could come from new players such as Franklin County's Demechery Hickingbottom and Preston Shelton along with Sam Ballard of Brookhaven.

"Josh is a solid player for us," said Davis. "We'll count on some new faces up front, but we feel good about what's there. We also have a couple solid backs returning who we expect to play well."

At receiver, Santarious Pollard of Natchez (5'11, 175) and Stefon Walker of Mendenhall (5'11, 180) both return after filling reserve roles a year ago. Also vying for playing time at receiver are Alonzo Lewis of LaPlace, La. (6'3, 201) and Devonte Scott of Ferriday, La. (5'11, 185).

2011 Schedule

Date	Opponent	Location	Time
Sept. 1	Coahoma	Clarksdale	6:30
Sept. 8	Holmes	Goodman	7:00
Sept. 15	Hinds	Wesson	7:00
Sept. 24	Jones County	Ellisville	6:30
Sept. 29	Southwest	Wesson	7:00
Oct. 6	Pearl River	Poplarville	7:00
Oct. 15	Gulf Coast (HC)	Wesson	5:00
Oct. 20	East Central	Decatur	6:30
Oct. 27	Northeast	Wesson	7:00

Defensively, the Wolfpack lost defensive tackle Bobby O'Quinn to a tragic death. The former All-State performer at Franklin County drowned in an attempt to save two children. His presence will be missed on the field and off.

Defensive tackle Jerry McNair (6'2, 285) is the only returning starter from last year's front seven. The former Magee standout posted 23 tackles as a freshman.

Newcomers to the defensive line include Derrick Billups of Alliceville, Ala., Jerrell Jordan of Alta Vista, Va., and Jordan Black of Valdosta, Ga.

Tevin Thomas of Franklin County (6'1, 205) and newcomer Terrell Hartsfield of Raleigh, NC, (6'3, 225) will have to fill the shoes of NJCAA All-American Honorable Mention Jordan Hunt (Florida International) at linebacker.

In the backfield, All-State performer Dehendret Collins of Meadville (5'11, 190) could be the most talented returner for the defense. Collins was one of last season's best tacklers with 53 stops, and led the team with four interceptions.

TK Fleming of Benton, La. (6'1, 215) and Robert Jones of Laurel (6'0, 180) should make an immediate impact in the secondary.

The Wolfpack have a new punter/placekicker in Nolan Long of Ackerman, who has shown a strong leg, especially on punts.

"We know we are rebuilding this year", said Davis. "But the good thing is the past two classes have been successful and hopefully that attitude is infectious and carries over to this team."

A strong nucleus of returning sophomores include forward Ryan Weaver of Terry, midfielder Lee Brown of Brandon, and midfielder Hunter Foster.

Woodham has a wealth of experience as a player for Centenary College and coach at the premiere level for the Shreveport Futbol Club, head women's coach for Captain Shreve High School and Loyola College Prep.

He was named District Coach of the Year twice and City Coach of the Year once.

Lady Wolves have high expectations for 2011

The Lady Wolves had their best season in school history in 2010. They finished with a 7-7 overall record and a 3-5 South Division record that included a sweep of rival Southwest Mississippi. The Lady Wolves also excelled in the classroom as they were the NJCAA's No. 17 Academic Team of the Year.

First year coach Trey Woodham said that last year's recruiting class gives the Lady Wolves a good chance of being solid again this year.

"The strength of this team is the great team chemistry," said Coach Woodham. "These girls really love playing for one another and for Co-Lin."

Lost to graduation were Heather Phillips (NJCAA Pinnacle Award for Academic Achievement, MACJC Distinguished Academic All-State), Samantha Roberts (NJCAA Exemplary Academic Achievement, MACJC Academic All-State), Damien Cliburn, Haley Vaughan, Ariel Patterson, Britney Cannon (MACJC Academic All-State), and Dallas Jackson.

The Lady Wolves are looking for leadership and solid contributions from returning sophomores Elizabeth Cudjoe (NJCAA All-Region 23), Nikki Marbury (MACJC All-State), and goal keeper Shkendria Williams. Cudjoe, sophomore from Ghana, is by far, the best player in the MACJC. Other sophomores who will see significant playing time are Dana McCook, Brooks Turner, Emily Zumbro, Martha Silva, Dava Berrong, Christy Wright, and Ariel Walters.

Six freshmen joining the Lady Wolves in 2011 include Shelby Guice of Natchez, Shellie Smith and Lindey Wall, both of Brookhaven; Kierra Thomas and Channon Redmond, both of Greenville; and Katilynne Pace of Clinton.

The South Division looks to be strong this season with perennial powerhouse Mississippi Gulf Coast and Jones County looking to be the top contenders.

Woodham thinks that the Lady Wolves have an outside shot of making the playoffs.

Women's Basketball

Improving consistency will be the focus in 2011-2012

Coach Dennis Sims knows that improving consistency will be a main focus for his Wolfpack basketball team in the 2011-2012 season.

Last year Sims led Copiah-Lincoln to a 10-11 record in a season that finished with multiple close finishes.

"We dropped five games last year by five or less points but we know it was our fault for not making the plays at the end and this year we want to have the toughness to finish those close games," said Sims.

If the Wolfpack are going to improve in toughness and consistency then they must get leadership from their small group of returning sophomores. Leading the sophomores is 6-3 forward Jake Reed. Reed, a Brookhaven Academy product, played in all 21 contests and started multiple games at both forward spots. Sophomore Chris Miller is another returnee that Sims is counting on to improve his play. Miller, a 6-4 forward hailing from Vicksburg High School, also saw action in all 21 games. Sophomore guard Maurice Williams is the returning player with the best scoring average. Williams, 6-3 and also from Vicksburg, was fifth on the team with a 4.6 points per game average. Sophomore Kelli Puckett, a 6-2 graduate of Natchez High, also returns and will be expected to lead.

"These four guys have all returned in better shape after the summer and I'm happy about that," said Sims.

Sophomore Jake Reed will be one of this year's leaders.

All-Region 23 and All-State player Marcus Hooten signed with Arkansas State University. He was eighth in the nation in scoring with a 23.8 points per game.

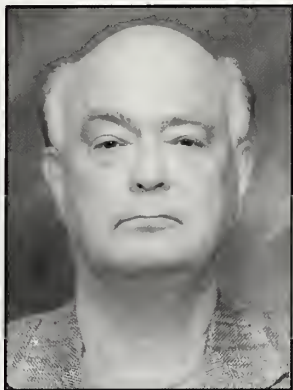

Two junior college transfer will look to help the Wolfpack by adding some much needed JUCO experience. Marshun McGee, a 6-0 guard originally from Bailey High in Jackson, MS, is a transfer from Pearl River Community College. The other transfer is Mike Buffalo, a 6-4 forward, who played last year at New Mexico Military College in Roswell, New Mexico. Buffalo, a native of Mount Vernon, NY, finished his high school career at South Kent Prep School.

Sims has a large group of freshman that must grow up quickly to help the Wolfpack contend in the always tough south division of the MACJC. A trio of freshman from Brookhaven High School will suit up for the Pack this season. They are 6-8 center Fred Fairman, 6-7 forward Daniel Washington, and 6-0 guard Keith Johnson. They will be joined by two more local products in 6-1 guard Jay Case from West Lincoln Attendance Center and Roman Lofton, a 5-10 guard out from Crystal Springs High School. Anthony Davis, a 5-10 guard from Pickering High School in Leesville, La., and 6-3 forward LeDarius Davis from Overton High in Memphis, will also be suiting up as freshman.

The Wolfpack's roster is rounded out by a couple of players from the East Mississippi in 6-5 freshman forward Chevelle Bonner from Wayne County High School and 5-10 guard Joseph Cunningham from Moss Point High School.

Talented freshmen expected to make impact

After three consecutive losing seasons, the Wolfpack look for improvement in 2011 with a mix of veterans and a talented freshmen class. Lack of pitching depth last season left Co-Lin with an overall record of 20-25 and a South Division record of 8-16.

The keys to the success in 2012 will be how quickly the freshmen adjust to college play and finding the right team chemistry.

The pitching staff will be made up of a mix of veterans and incoming freshmen. Five of the starting eight position players will be new faces.

"The key to our success is the pitching staff," said Head Coach Keith Case. "If we pitch and play defense we will have a chance in the South Division."

Lost to graduation are catcher Kolby Byrd (13th round draft pick of the St. Louis Cardinals), shortstop Edmund Cheatham (Mississippi Valley State), third baseman Bud Britt (Belhaven University), and right hand pitcher Brandon Jones (William Carey University).

Impact transfer players include shortstop Noel Santos (Alabama A&M), catcher Stephen Joe (Hinds Community College). Freshmen impact players include infielder Matt Smith (Wesson High School), right hand pitchers Jake Mitchell (Horseshoe Bend in Cragford, AL), Korey Allen and Tyler Case, both of Loyd Star.

Returning players include infielder Willie Buckley (.299), infielder/outfielder Bryce Guess (.269), outfielders Zac Ferguson (.280) and Jarvis Wilbert (.474).

Veteran pitchers include right hand pitchers

Tripp Jolly (9.0 ERA, 2-3), Tyler Copeland (4.42 ERA, 3-2), Raymond Winter (3.42 ERA, 4-3), and Cody Wall (4.50 ERA, 2-0).

New faces on the pitching staff include Chandler Ramsey of Madison, J.D. Britt of Brookhaven, Zeke Maddox of Magee, Ryan Goddard of Natchez, Gib Britt of Wesson, and Jaden Whitten of Poplarville.

A talented group of freshmen that will be vying for positions this season includes infielders Corey Pouncey of Alexander City, Ala.; Nolan Long of Ackerman, Mitch Little of Georgetown, and Will Gatlin of Bogue Chitto.

Outfielders include Garrett McBeth of Brandon and Dylan Lea of Monticello.

Year after year, the South Division remains competitive. The 2012 will be no different with Jones County (2011 NJCAA National Runner-Up), Hinds (2010 MACJC State Champion), East Central (2007 MACJC State Champion), and Pearl River with a talented group of position players that play defense and swing with some power.

Sophomores hope to lead Lady Wolves back to playoffs

The Lady Wolves return 10 sophomores who have their sights set on the playoffs in 2012.

Sophomore pitchers Brooke Delaughter of Brookhaven and Sarah Anthony of Live Oak, La., will provide leadership and experience in the circle. The Lady Wolves return the entire outfield, Ashley McCaffery of Bogue Chitto, Emily Smith and Stevie Ann Wright, both of Brookhaven, and Bobbie Cochran of Seminary. Also returning are infielders Carrie Moak of Brookhaven, Tammy Alford of Lafitte, La., and short stop Kacey Smith of Franklin County.

Incoming freshmen competing for playing time are a trio from Enterprise High School, pitcher Chynna Coghlan, utility player Karla Beth Hux (Daily Leader Defensive Most Valuable Player), and outfielder Kaitlin Moak; infielder/outfielder Bradi Davis, outfielder Josie Porter (Daily Leader Most Valuable Player), and catcher/outfielder Darcy Miller, all of Bogue Chitto High School; infielder Kaitlan Melton of Adams County Christian School; pitcher Jennifer Staruska of New Caney (Greater Houston (TX) Area All-Star), and catcher Shelby Mitchell of Lawrence County High School.

Lost to graduation are NJCAA All-Region 23 and MACJC All-State pitcher Bethany Pinkston (McNeese State University), infielder Haley Sones (BYU Hawaii), catcher Lakin Lockhart, and outfielder Erika Rutland.

"Pitching was a key for us last season, it kept us in most games," said Head Coach Allen Kent. "Defense and hitting in key situations cost us last year as we lost seven division games by one or two runs. Hopefully this year, we will have a few more offensive weapons."

The South Division is always strong. Jones has a lot of players back, plus they have a great recruiting district. Gulf Coast is always in strong as well as two-time defending Region 23 Champion East Central. Pearl River, Southwest and Hinds should also be stronger this year.

Wolfpack are the MACJC's No. 1 Academic Team

Once again, Coach Mike McIntyre's team achieved another successful season on and off the court. The Wolfpack finished fifth in the MACJC State Tournament, the NJCAA's No. 2 Academic Team of the Year, and the MACJC's No. 1 Men's Academic Team. The Intercollegiate Tennis Association (ITA) ranked the Wolfpack No. 27 nationally.

After spraining his ankle in a match just before the state tournament, Knezevic limped into the semifinal's falling to defending State Champ Ethan Wilkerson (Australian) of Itawamba.

"Marko is the best player I've coached in my 33 years," said head coach Mike McIntyre. "He's a great kid with a huge heart and big-time tennis game, but he's also a great student in the classroom. We can only wonder what would have happened if he had not injured the ankle."

At No. 2 singles, Huljev fell to the eventual state champ in the semifinal's, losing to Jones County's Nick Williams of Melbourne, Australia.

Both Knezevic and Huljev return in 2012 along with Matt Hart (No. 4 singles).

Lost to graduation are Jon McLeod and Blaine Roberts, team captain Joey Shelton enlisted in the U.S. Marines, and Levi Weeks is a "super" sophomore at CoLin. "All three guys had very little tennis experience just over a year ago, but have become very competitive players," said McIntyre.

Two incoming freshmen that will play big roles on the 2012 team are Brance Crane of Moss Point (East Central High School) and Mark Ladd of Monticello, who is returning to school after serving six years in the military.

McIntyre's career dual match coaching record 440-96 in 33 seasons with six State, four NJCAA Regional Team Championships, and 10 team Runners-Up titles. His teams have accumulated over 72 individual State and Regional titles and 13 teams ranked in "National Top 25."

The Wolfpack was the National Champion Academic-Team-of-the-Year in 2002, 2005, 2007 and 2008 and Runners-Up in 2003, 2004, 2006, 2009, and 2011.

The Road to the Championship

Lady Wolves win MACJC State Championship

WESSON - The Co-Lin Lady Wolves defeated the Jones County Lady Bobcats 85-77 to claim the MACJC Women's Basketball State Championship in front of a packed house in Mullen Gymnasium. Sophomore guard Kiara Etienne led 4 Co-Lin players in double digits with 19 points. G.G. Williams added 15 points, Brandi Simmons 14 and Paige Webster 11.

Etienne, Webster, and Simmons had 7 rebounds each in the victory.

The Co-Lin bench outscored the Lady Bobcats 25-6. Guard Ann Shelby Davis came off the bench to score 8 points, including a trey. She went 3 of 4 from the free throw line.

This was the third meeting this season between the two South Division powerhouses. Co-Lin had won the first meeting with the Lady Bobcats 77-56 at Co-Lin on Jan. 24. The Bobcats (19-7) defeated Co-Lin last week earlier at Ellisville, winning 90-80 and handing the No. 8-ranked Wolves their first South Division loss.

Sophomore guard Tanecka Carey sacked 40 points for the Lady Bobcats, including 8 treys. Carey, a Southern Miss, scored 17 first-half points, hitting 5 of 8 shots from behind the 3-point line. Co-Lin held a 43-41 lead at halftime.

In the second half, Co-Lin built a 9-point, 50-41 lead on a short jumper by Etienne with 18:13 left to play. Jones came roaring back and claimed a 73-71 lead on 2 free throws by Carey with 4:27 left.

Co-Lin responded. Simmons scored in the paint and

Lady Wolves capture back-to-back championships

CLINTON - What looked like a very competitive NJCAA Region 23 Championship game at halftime turned out to be a rout as the Co-Lin Lady Wolves defeated the Meridian Lady Eagles 89-54 to capture their second consecutive NJCAA Region 23 title tonight at A. E. Wood Coliseum on the campus of Mississippi College. Co-Lin (25-2) advances to the NJCAA Division I National Tournament in Salina, KS. Meridian finishes the season 27-6.

After leading 30-28 at halftime, the Lady Wolves went on a 10-3 run to start the second half. Meridian kept the game close pulling to within 40-38 at the 14:48 mark, but the Lady Wolves went on a 49-16 run to finish the game. Kiara Etienne

Co-Lin shot a blistering 66 percent in the second half led by a red-hot Ann Shelby Davis who came off the bench to score a career-high 17 points all in the second half. The 5-10 freshman from Wesson, hit 6-of-7 field goals, including 3 treys.

The Co-Lin defense held Meridian's Chasity Kearney, who had 16 first half points, to 2 points in the second half. The Lady Eagles made only 9-of-41 field goal attempts in the second half (22 percent) and finished the game shooting only 26 percent. Meridian, who defeated East Mississippi 80-72 in overtime in last night, appeared to tire in the second half as the Lady Wolves beat down the court numerous times for layups.

Sophomore Kiara Etienne scored 17 points and dished out 5 assists. Sophomore Brandi Simmons posted a double-double with 15 points and 10 rebounds. Sedreka Plummer chipped in 12 points and 9 rebounds. Keosha Bradley pulled down 9 rebounds.

Kearney finished with a game-high 18 points

The last time Co-Lin won both the MACJC State Championship and NJCAA Region 23 Championship was in 2001-2002.

Co-Lin fell behind in the first half by as many as 12 points, but went on a 14-3 run to end the half to pull within one, 30-29.

At the beginning of the second half, Simmons led the Lady Wolves on a 14-5 run as they took a 47-35 lead. Co-Lin's shooting went cold and State Fair went on a 13-0 run to take a 48-47 lead with 7:27 left to play. A three-pointer by Bradley at the 4:57 mark gave Lady Wolves a 50-48 lead. The Lady Roadrunners scored eight straight points to regain the lead at 56-51 with 3:07 remaining.

With 1:45 left, Webster nailed two free throws to tie the game at 56-all. After a failed possession, State Fair fouled Bradley. Bradley hit 1-of-2 free throws to put the Lady Wolves up 57-56 with 1:06 to play.

After Simmons' free throws, State Fair had an opportunity to tie the game, but Arriana Walker's three point attempt failed.

Simmons finished the game with 14 points, 8 rebounds and 3 assists. Bradley chipped in 11 points. Etienne and Plummer scored 10 points apiece.
